- The acquisition of CWW will strengthen the enterprise business of Vodafone Group in the UK and internationally and presents attractive network and other cost saving opportunities for Vodafone Group.
- The CWW Directors, who have been so advised by Barclays and Rothschild (as CWW's joint financial advisers), consider the terms of the Offer to be fair and reasonable. In providing advice to the CWW Directors, Barclays and Rothschild have taken into account the commercial assessments of the CWW Directors.
- Accordingly, the CWW Directors have agreed to recommend unanimously that CWW Shareholders vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting as the CWW Directors have irrevocably undertaken to do in respect of their own beneficial holdings of 2,570,695 CWW Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 0.09 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of CWW in issue on 20 April 2012 (being the latest practicable date prior to this announcement).

Further details of these irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent are set out in Appendix III to this announcement.

Commenting on the Offer, John Barton, Chairman of CWW, said:

“Under the leadership of Gavin Darby, Cable & Wireless Worldwide has outlined a strategy to refocus the business on achieving sustainable cash generation and returns from capital invested. However, the offer from Vodafone announced today will enable shareholders to crystallise a value, in cash, that represents a significant premium to recent trading levels and avoid exposure to the risks inevitably presented by executing a medium-term improvement strategy.

Furthermore, the combination with Vodafone represents an exciting opportunity for Cable & Wireless Worldwide’s customers, employees, partners and other stakeholders to benefit from the many advantages that will come from being part of the Vodafone Group.”

Commenting on the Offer, Vittorio Colao, CEO of Vodafone Group, said:

“We are pleased to reach agreement with the Board of Cable & Wireless Worldwide, who unanimously recommend our offer. The acquisition of Cable & Wireless Worldwide creates a leading integrated player in the enterprise segment of the UK communications market and brings attractive cost savings to our UK and international operations. We look forward to working with the management and employees of Cable & Wireless Worldwide to combine our expertise for the benefit of our customers and shareholders.”

RECOMMENDED CASH OFFER

CABLE & WIRELESS WORLDWIDE PLC

by

VODAFONE EUROPE B.V.

an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Vodafone Group Plc

1 Introduction

Vodafone Europe B.V. ("Vodafone") and Cable & Wireless Worldwide plc ("CWW" or the "Company") are pleased to announce that they have reached agreement on the terms of a recommended cash offer pursuant to which Vodafone will acquire the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of CWW. It is intended that the Offer will be effected by way of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act.

2 The Offer

Under the terms of the Offer, which will be subject to the applicable Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I to this announcement and to be set out in the Scheme Document, CWW Shareholders will be entitled to receive:

38 pence in cash for each CWW Share

The Offer values the entire existing issued ordinary share capital of CWW at approximately £1,044 million and represents a premium of approximately:

- 92 per cent. to the Closing Price of 19.8 pence per CWW Share on 10 February 2012 (being the last Business Day prior to the commencement of the Offer Period); and
- 107 per cent. to the average Closing Price of 18.4 pence per CWW Share for the three months ended 10 February 2012.

The Offer price of 38 pence per CWW Share is final and will not be increased. Vodafone reserves its right to increase the Offer if a third party announces a possible offer or offer for CWW.

The Offer price is offered on the basis that CWW Shareholders will not receive any further dividends.

3 Background to and reasons for the Offer

The acquisition of CWW will strengthen the enterprise business of Vodafone Group in the UK and internationally and presents attractive network and other cost saving opportunities for Vodafone Group.

UK benefits

The combination of Vodafone Group and CWW will create a leading enterprise-focused operator in the UK that will be well positioned to capitalise on the growing market for unified communications and offer UK enterprise customers the opportunity to purchase advanced total communications services from a single service provider.

CWW has an extensive UK fibre network that fits well with the location of Vodafone Group's UK base stations. As the demand for mobile data continues to grow strongly, the CWW fibre network can provide fast backhaul of data traffic at considerably lower cost compared to prevailing market rates for leased capacity.

Cost savings can also be achieved from combining UK procurement and rationalising network, IT and administrative functions.

International benefits

Vodafone Global Enterprise ("VGE") is a leading provider of managed communications services to many of the world's leading companies. The combination of VGE and CWW will increase the scope of services Vodafone Group can offer enterprise customers.

CWW's extensive international network and high traffic volumes give it a favourable peering status for IP transit with other operators. Exploiting CWW's international network capacity in servicing Vodafone Group's international IP traffic requirements will generate significant cost efficiencies. CWW will also be able to handle part of Vodafone Group's international traffic that is currently carried by other operators.

Value creation

The Offer meets Vodafone Group's strict M&A criteria and is expected to be value creative for Vodafone Group's shareholders. The Offer is expected to be accretive to Vodafone Group's earnings per share and free cash flow per share in the first 12 months of ownership after synergies and before integration costs.

CWW's tax losses and capital allowances are not key to the rationale underpinning the Offer. Vodafone does not believe it can utilise CWW's tax losses and it has not ascribed any value to the possibility of using CWW's capital allowances against Vodafone Group's existing UK operations.

4 Recommendation

The CWW Directors, who have been so advised by Barclays and Rothschild (as joint financial advisers to CWW), consider the terms of the Offer to be fair and reasonable. In providing advice to the CWW Directors, Barclays and Rothschild have taken into account the commercial assessments of the CWW Directors. Accordingly, the CWW Directors have agreed to recommend unanimously that CWW Shareholders vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting as the CWW Directors have irrevocably undertaken to do in respect of their own beneficial holdings of 2,570,695 CWW Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 0.09 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of CWW in issue on 20 April 2012 (being the latest practicable date prior to this announcement).

5 Irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent

Vodafone has received irrevocable undertakings from each of the CWW Directors and from RBC Global Asset Management Inc., Sky Investment Counsel Inc. and Cyrt Investments GP I B.V., and letters of intent from J.P. Morgan Asset Management Limited and Investec Asset Management Limited to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the resolutions to be proposed at the General Meeting, in respect of a total of 510,548,947 CWW Shares, representing approximately 18.58 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of CWW in issue on 20 April 2012 (being the latest practicable date prior to this announcement). Further details of these irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent (including the circumstances in which they will fall away) are set out in Appendix III to this announcement.

6 Background to and reasons for the recommendation

Since his appointment as CEO in November 2011, Gavin Darby has undertaken a thorough review of the business to establish a coherent performance improvement plan, focusing in particular on increasing the cash generation and returns delivered by the business over the medium term, which the CWW Board has agreed. However, the full benefits of the business plan would take several years to deliver and would be subject to execution risk.

In arriving at their unanimous decision to recommend the Offer, the CWW Directors have taken into account that the terms of the Offer represent a significant premium, in cash, equivalent to:

- 92 per cent. to the Closing Price of 19.8 pence per CWW Share on 10 February 2012 (being the last Business Day prior to the commencement of the Offer Period); and
- 107 per cent. to the average Closing Price of 18.4 pence per CWW Share for the three months ended 10 February 2012.

The CWW Board has considered the attractiveness of such a cash offer today against the risks in delivering the business plan. The CWW Directors believe that the price of 38 pence per CWW Share represents an excellent opportunity for CWW Shareholders to realise an attractive valuation in cash today. Furthermore, the combination of CWW and Vodafone will create a strong, integrated fixed and mobile player serving the enterprise and public sector segment in the UK and internationally. The CWW Board believes that being part of a larger and financially strong group will facilitate a more significant and rapid transformation of the business which will be beneficial for all CWW's stakeholders.

Taking these considerations into account, the CWW Directors unanimously recommend that CWW Shareholders accept the Offer from Vodafone.

7 Information on Vodafone

Vodafone is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Vodafone Group. Since its incorporation in 1995, Vodafone has been one of the main intermediate holding companies of Vodafone Group. Its business is the holding of shares, directly or indirectly, in operating and other companies belonging to Vodafone Group. As of 31 March 2011, Vodafone had total assets of €51 billion and total equity of €51 billion.

Vodafone Group is one of the world's largest mobile communications companies by revenue with over 398 million customers in its controlled and jointly controlled markets as at 31

December 2011. It generates revenues from mobile voice, messaging and data communications services, fixed line services, business managed services and the wholesale of access to mobile virtual network operators.

Vodafone Group currently has equity interests in over 30 countries across five continents and more than 40 partner networks worldwide, with operations split into two geographic regions: Europe, and Africa, Middle East and Asia Pacific (AMAP). It also has a 45 per cent. interest in Verizon Wireless in the United States.

Vodafone Group's revenue for the year ended 31 March 2011 was £45.9 billion and it had an operating profit of £5.6 billion, with profit before tax of £9.5 billion and diluted earnings per share of 15.11 pence. Vodafone Group employed an average of around 83,900 people during the year ended 31 March 2011.

8 Information on CWW

CWW provides integrated communications and data hosting services to large enterprises and mid-market customers in both the public and private sectors.

Reaching approximately 20,500 km in length, CWW owns one of the UK's largest fibre networks dedicated to business users of telecoms and provides access through a combination of fibre, digital microwave radio and leased circuits. The network has a presence in over 400 towns and cities in the UK, and in more than 860 unbundled exchanges covering more than 55 per cent. of the population.

Internationally, CWW's global network stretches to more than 425,000 km. CWW has 127 global points of presence in 35 countries.

CWW's revenue for the year ended 31 March 2011 was £2.26 billion and it had an operating profit of £153.0 million, with profit before tax of £140.0 million and diluted earnings per share of 7.7 pence.

9 Management, employees and locations

Vodafone attaches great importance to the skills, experience and industry knowledge of the existing management and employees of CWW, whom Vodafone would anticipate playing an important role in the on-going development of the business. However, following the completion of the Offer, there is likely to be a reduction of headcount and places of business where there is administrative or operational overlap although specific individuals and locations have not yet been identified by Vodafone.

Vodafone has given assurances to CWW that the existing statutory employment rights of management and employees of CWW will be fully safeguarded. In addition, subject to appropriate consultation, Vodafone proposes to align the terms, conditions and policies of employment of CWW management and employees with those used by Vodafone Group.

Vodafone and Vodafone Group have entered into arrangements with the Trustee of the CWW Plan and with the Trustees of the THUS Scheme in relation to the Offer. The arrangements address various matters, including the provision of guarantees to be granted by Vodafone Group, taking effect upon completion of the Offer, and the funding and security of pension benefits.

10 CWW Share Plans

The Offer will affect participants in the CWW Share Plans. In summary, Vodafone has agreed that:

- matching shares awarded under the CWW Share Purchase Plan will not be forfeit as a result of the Offer;
- performance share awards and restricted share awards granted under the CWW Incentive Plan 2011 will be replaced with awards over Vodafone Group shares on a fair and reasonable basis. Such awards will not be subject to performance conditions and Vodafone Group has agreed certain amendments to the rules which will enhance participants' rights; and
- other outstanding awards will be treated in accordance with the applicable rules.

Vodafone has agreed that employees of the CWW Group will be eligible to participate in the employee incentive plans operated by Vodafone Group on the same basis as comparable employees of Vodafone Group. The terms of such participation will be consistent with the terms on which comparable employees of Vodafone Group participate, subject always to relevant plan rules.

Further details of these arrangements will be included in the Scheme Document and communicated to participants in due course.

11 CWW Convertible Bonds

Holders of the CWW Convertible Bonds will be contacted regarding the effect of the Offer on their rights in respect of the CWW Convertible Bonds held by them and appropriate proposals will be made in due course to such bondholders.

12 CWW American Depositary Receipts

As the Offer is not being specifically extended to CWW ADRs representing CWW Shares, CWW ADR holders who wish to participate in the Offer should take steps to present their CWW ADRs to the US Depositary for cancellation in accordance with the terms of the agreement with the US Depositary (the "Deposit Agreement"), including as to payment of the US Depositary's fees, taxes, government charges and any applicable transfer fees. Any underlying CWW Shares received by CWW ADR holders upon such cancellation may then be tendered in the Offer following the procedures to be set out in the Scheme Document when issued.

If the Scheme is approved by a majority in number of those CWW Shareholders entitled to vote and present and voting at the Court Meeting (either in person or by proxy) representing at least 75 per cent. in value of the CWW Shares voted in accordance with paragraph 16, the CWW ADRs will be cancelled and the US Depositary shall deliver the Offer value of the CWW Shares in cash to the CWW Shareholders in accordance with the Deposit Agreement.

CWW ADR holders should verify the timing of any withdrawal with the US Depositary and account for any time needed by the US Depositary for processing when deciding whether to cancel their CWW ADRs and participate in the Offer.

13 Financing

The cash consideration payable under the Offer will be funded entirely by Vodafone Group from its own resources. UBS, financial adviser to Vodafone, is satisfied that sufficient resources are available to satisfy in full the cash consideration payable to CWW Shareholders under the terms of the Offer.

14 Offer Related Arrangements

Confidentiality agreement

Vodafone and CWW entered into a confidentiality agreement dated 12 March 2012 (the “Confidentiality Agreement”) pursuant to which each of Vodafone and CWW have agreed to keep confidential information about the other party and not to disclose it to third parties (other than permitted recipients) unless required by law or regulation. These confidentiality obligations will remain in force until completion of the Offer, or for a period of two years from the date of the Confidentiality Agreement.

Bid Conduct Agreement

Under the Bid Conduct Agreement between Vodafone and CWW dated the date of this announcement, CWW has agreed to provide to Vodafone such information and assistance as it may reasonably require for the purposes of obtaining regulatory clearances. Vodafone has agreed to take all steps reasonably necessary to implement the Offer. As set out in the Bid Conduct Agreement, Vodafone reserves the right to elect to implement the Offer by means of a takeover offer on the same terms subject to appropriate amendment and Panel consent. The Bid Conduct Agreement also sets out certain agreements reached between Vodafone and CWW in relation to the treatment of the CWW Share Plans. The Bid Conduct Agreement will terminate if the CWW Board withdraws its recommendation of the Offer, the Offer is withdrawn or lapses or does not complete before 30 November 2012 or otherwise as agreed between Vodafone and CWW.

15 Opening Position Disclosures and Interests

Vodafone confirms that it is not required to make an Opening Position Disclosure setting out the details required to be disclosed by it under Rule 8.1(a) of the City Code as no interests or short positions in, or rights to subscribe for, any CWW securities are held by Vodafone or its concert parties.

16 Structure of the Offer

It is intended that the Offer will be effected by means of a scheme of arrangement between CWW and CWW Shareholders under Part 26 of the Companies Act. As described in more detail in paragraph 19, Vodafone reserves the right to elect to implement the acquisition of CWW, with the consent of the Panel, by way of a takeover offer within the meaning of Part 28 of the Companies Act.

The purpose of the Scheme is to provide for Vodafone to become the holder of the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of CWW. This is to be achieved by the cancellation of the ordinary shares and the application of the reserve arising from such cancellation in paying up in full a number of new CWW Shares (which is equal to the number of ordinary shares cancelled), and issuing the same to Vodafone, in consideration for which the CWW Shareholders will receive cash consideration on the basis set out in paragraph 2 of this announcement.

To become effective, the Scheme must be approved by a majority in number of those CWW Shareholders entitled to vote and present and voting at the Court Meeting (either in person or by proxy) representing at least 75 per cent. in value of the CWW Shares voted, together with the approval of the Court and the passing at the General Meeting of a special resolution necessary to implement the Scheme and approve the related Capital Reduction.

The Scheme is also subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I to this announcement and to be set out in the Scheme Document.

Once the necessary approvals from CWW Shareholders have been obtained and the other Conditions have been satisfied or (where applicable) waived, the Scheme must be approved by the Court. The Scheme will then become effective upon delivery of the Court Order(s) to the Registrar of Companies. Subject to satisfaction of the Conditions, the Scheme is expected to become effective in August 2012.

The Offer will lapse if:

- the Court Meeting and the General Meeting are not held by the 22nd day after the expected date of such meetings to be set out in the Scheme Document in due course (or such later date as may be agreed between Vodafone and CWW); or
- the Scheme does not become effective by 30 November 2012 (or such later date as may be agreed between Vodafone and CWW), provided however that the deadlines for the timing of the Court Meeting, the General Meeting and the effectiveness of the Scheme as set out above may be waived by Vodafone.

Upon the Scheme becoming effective, it will be binding on all CWW Shareholders, irrespective of whether or not they attended or voted at the Court Meeting or the General Meeting.

Further details of the Scheme, including an indicative timetable for its implementation, will be set out in the Scheme Document, which is expected to be despatched to CWW Shareholders as soon as reasonably practicable.

17 Regulatory issues

The Offer will be subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I to this announcement and to be set out in the Scheme Document.

18 De-listing and re-registration

Prior to the Scheme becoming effective, CWW will make an application for the cancellation of the listing of CWW Shares on the Official List, including the CWW Shares underlying the CWW ADRs, and for the cancellation of trading of the CWW Shares on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities in each case to take effect from or shortly after the Effective Date. The last day of dealings in CWW Shares on the main market of the London Stock Exchange is expected to be the Business Day immediately prior to the Effective Date and no transfers will be registered after 6.00 p.m. (London time) on that date.

On the Effective Date, share certificates in respect of CWW Shares will cease to be valid and entitlements to CWW Shares held within the CREST system will be cancelled.

19 General

Vodafone reserves the right to elect to implement the acquisition of the CWW Shares by way of a takeover offer as an alternative to the Scheme. In such event, the acquisition will be implemented on substantially the same terms as those which would apply to the Scheme (subject to appropriate amendments, including an acceptance condition set at 90 per cent. of the shares to which such offer relates or such lesser percentage, being more than 50 per cent., as Vodafone may decide).

The Offer will be made subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I to this announcement and to be set out in the Scheme Document. The bases and sources of certain financial information contained in this announcement are set out in Appendix II to this announcement. A summary of the irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent is contained in Appendix III to this announcement. Certain terms used in this announcement are defined in Appendix IV to this announcement.

20 Documents on display

Copies of the following documents will be made available on CWW's website at www.cw.com/investors/ and Vodafone's website at www.vodafone.com/investor until the end of the Offer:

- the irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent referred to in paragraph 5 above and summarised in Appendix III to this announcement;
- the Confidentiality Agreement; and
- the Bid Conduct Agreement.

Part B: Certain further terms of the Offer

Subject to the requirements of the Panel, Vodafone reserves the right to waive:

- (i) any of the Conditions set out in the above Condition 1 for the timing of the Court Meeting, the General Meeting, and the Court hearing to sanction the Scheme and the effectiveness of the Scheme. If any such deadline is not met, Vodafone will make an announcement as soon as practicable and in any event by 8.00 a.m. on the Business Day following such deadline confirming whether it has invoked or waived the relevant Condition or agreed with CWW to extend the deadline in relation to the relevant Condition;
- (ii) in whole or in part, all or any of the above Conditions 2(a) to (h) (inclusive).

If Vodafone is required by the Panel to make an offer for CWW Shares under the provisions of Rule 9 of the Code, Vodafone may make such alterations to any of the above Conditions and terms of the Offer as are necessary to comply with the provisions of that Rule.

Save with the consent of the Panel, the Scheme will not proceed if the European Commission either initiates proceedings under Article 6(1)(c) of Council Regulation (EC) 139/2004 (the “Merger Regulation”) or makes a referral to a competent authority of the United Kingdom under Article 9(1) of the Merger Regulation and there is then a reference to the UK Competition Commission or there is a reference to the UK Competition Commission before the date of the Court Meeting. In such event neither Vodafone, CWW nor any CWW Shareholder will be bound by any term of the Scheme.

Vodafone shall be under no obligation to waive (if capable of waiver), to determine to be or remain satisfied or to treat as fulfilled any of Conditions 2(a) to (h) (inclusive) by a date earlier than the latest date for the fulfilment of that Condition notwithstanding that the other Conditions of the Offer may at such earlier date have been waived or fulfilled and that there are at such earlier date no circumstances indicating that any of such Conditions may not be capable of fulfilment.

The Offer price is offered on the basis that CWW Shareholders will not receive any further dividends. If a dividend were to be declared, the Offer price would be adjusted downwards on an equivalent basis.

Vodafone reserves the right to elect, with the consent of the Panel, to implement the Offer by way of a takeover offer as it may determine in its absolute discretion. In such event, the acquisition will be implemented on substantially the same terms subject to appropriate amendments, including (without limitation) an acceptance condition set at 90 per cent. (or such less percentage, being more than 50 per cent., as Vodafone may decide) of the shares to which such offer relates, so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme (the “General Offer Acceptance Condition”).

The availability of the Offer to persons not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions. Persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom should inform themselves about and observe any applicable requirements.

The Offer is not being made, directly or indirectly, in, into or from, or by use of the mails of, or by any means of instrumentality (including, but not limited to, facsimile, e-mail or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or of any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of, any jurisdiction where to do so would violate the laws of that jurisdiction.

Under Rule 13.5(a) of the Code, Vodafone may not invoke a condition to the Offer so as to cause the Offer not to proceed, to lapse or to be withdrawn unless the circumstances which give rise to the right to invoke the condition are of material significance to Vodafone in the context of the Offer. The conditions contained in paragraphs 1 and 2(a) of Part A and, if applicable, the General Offer Acceptance Condition set out in Part B are not subject to this provision of the Code.

The Offer is governed by the law of England and Wales and is subject to the jurisdiction of the English courts and to the Conditions and further terms set out in this Appendix I and to be set out in the Scheme Document. The Offer will be subject to applicable requirements of the City Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange and the UKLA.
